What does TQ... do?

Our Mission:

Theatre Quadra is a not-for-profit group whose purpose is to entertain, educate and enrich our community by providing quality theatrical experiences.

Our Objectives:

Theatre Quadra seeks to achieve its mission by offering:

- Theatrical productions that are ambitious, inclusive, meaningful and engaging.
- Creative outlets for youth and adults to develop their dramatic talents.
- Learning experiences in all aspects of theatre production and management.

These 'Beauties' sure aren't 'Sleeping'!

We do it all... a panoply of eye-popping productions:

1. Major productions (full length, large cast, often with music)
2. Small productions (short length, small cast)
3. Partnership productions (in collaboration with independent producers)

Coming up ...

In 2014, we're working toward a small production in the Spring, with plans for a major production in late Fall.
